Source Code Volunteer Project

Only individuals acting as volunteers may participate in source code volunteer efforts. No individual may be paid for their efforts. When submitting your source code, please provide your name, address (mailing address and e-mail address), occupation and the name of your employer.

By submitting this source code you warrant that the code is your original product and you have not reproduced, counterfeited, copied or colorably imitated any, copyright trademark, or service mark or violated any federal or state law.

Further, this source code is not being submitted by a company, business, labor union or other organization, or any federal, state or municipal agency and has not been produced using the facilities of any such groups.

Gore 2000 does not authorize any individual to incur expenses in connection with this volunteer effort and should any volunteer contemplate doing so, he/she must contact the campaign's accounting department in advance.

Multimedia Volunteer Project

Only individuals acting as volunteers may participate in the volunteer Multimedia Project. No individual may be paid for their efforts. You are voluntarily submitting material that is owned by you and not by a company, business, labor union or other organization, or any federal, state or municipal agency and has not been prepared using the facilities of any such group. When submitting material, please provide your name, address (mailing address and e-mail address), telephone number, occupation and the name of your employer.

By voluntarily submitting any material for the Multimedia Project you warrant that the material is your original product and you have not reproduced, counterfeited, copied or colorably imitated any, copyright, trademark, or service mark or violated any federal or state law.

If Gore 2000 selects your material for use on our website we will contact you with further legal requirements.

Gore 2000 does not authorize any individual to incur expenses in connection with this volunteer effort and should any volunteer contemplate doing so, he/she must contact the campaign's accounting department in advance.
